Joey Coulter's Big Weekend Continues with Hot Rods & Reels Fishing Charity Tournament Championship, Nov. 19

Joey Coulter Racing

HOMESTEAD, Fla. -- A day after clinching NASCAR Camping World Truck Series "Rookie of the Year" honors by finishing 5th in the Ford 200, NASCAR Driver Joey Coulter continued his big weekend by winning the Hot Rods & Reels Charity Fishing Tournament at the Homestead-Miami Speedway on Saturday, November 19. The Hot Rods & Reels Charity Fishing Tournament with NASCAR Drivers annually benefits the Darrell Gwynn Foundation. The foundation's mission is to SUPPORT people with paralysis and PREVENT spinal cord injuries.

Coulter's team of Tim Nichols, Steve Marcus, Haithan Mustafa won the tournament by catching bass with a combined weight of 6.10lbs.

"It was great to be here and great to support Darrell," said Coulter. "This is such a cool event to fish on the infield lake. We really had a great time."

Coulter drives the No. 22 Darrell Gwynn Foundation Chevrolet in the NASCAR Camping Word Truck Series which sports the Darrell Gwynn Foundation logo on the hood. He and his family are great supporters of the foundation.

Richard Childress caught the biggest fish of the day, catching a 4.08lbs. bass in the tournament.

The annual Hot Rods & Reels Charity Fishing Tournament pairs foundation supporters with NASCAR Drivers and personalities for a day of bass fishing on the infield lake at the Homestead—Miami Speedway. The annual event benefits the Darrell Gwynn Foundation and offers companies an opportunity to entertain clients and reward employees during Ford Championship Weekend.

You can learn more about participating in the next Hot Rods & Reels tournament at the Daytona International Speedway at the Daytona 500 by visiting www.hotrodsandreels.com. Boats and sponsorships are available.

Despite a scheduling change due to inclement weather Friday night to Sprint Cup Practice that conflicted with this year's fishing tournament Saturday morning, several NASCAR Drivers still made time to attend the event and participate including: Ryan Newman, Joe Nemechek, Greg Sachs, Clint Bowyer, Martin Truex and Joey Coulter. Team owner Richard Childress also fished along with FOX NASCAR analyst Larry McReynolds. NASCAR President Mike Helton also visited the tournament.

At the Hot Rods & Reels Charity Fishing Tournament the Darrell Gwynn Foundation, on behalf of its donors, donated a $10,000 power wheelchair to Tyron Cunningham of Miami Gardens, Fla. The wheelchair donation was made through the foundation's national Wheelchair Donation Program. You can help support the foundation's wheelchair donation program and Give the Gift of Mobility by donating today: <https://darrellgwynnfoundation.org/the-gift-of-mobility.php>.

Sponsors who made the event possible include: Hot Shot, United Industries, Bass Pro Shops-Outdoor World, Sprint, Hook & Tackle, Bass Online, Coca-Cola, Rolltisserie by Southern Pride and Plano.
